

Kenneth Burke Society
N E W S L E T T E R

Vol. 4 Kenneth Burke Society Newsletter

January, 1989

NEW OFFICERS of SCA Branch

During the annual meeting of the Kenneth Burke Society, November, 1988, New Orleans, Louisiana Branch, the following new officers were elected for the SCA:

Chair: James F. Klumpp
Dept. of Communication Arts and Theatre Dept.
University of Maryland
College Park, MD 20742

Program Planner: Clark Rountree
Dept. of Speech Communication
University of Georgia
Athens, GA 30602

Recording Sec.: Richard Thames
Dept. of Speech Communication and Theatre
Dusquesne University
Pittsburgh, PA 15282

Newsletter Ed.: Dale A. Bertlesen
Dept. of Communication Studies
Bloomsburg University
Bloomsburg, PA 17815

Burke Conference in 1990

Planning is underway for the 1990 national conference of the Kenneth Burke Society, with Sheron Dailey leading the planning committee.

Exact time and site will be announced later. It is now hoped to hold the conference close to Burke's 93rd birthday which is May 5, 1990.

Ideas for the conference should be sent to Sheron by September 1, 1989. Paper deadline will be January 1, 1990. Registration and participation information will appear in the Newsletter.

Program ideas or questions should be directed to: Professor Sheron Dailey, Dept. of Communication, Indiana State University, Terre Haute, IN 47809, (812) 237-3178-X2686.

Renew Your Membership

Look by your name on this Newsletter address. If there is 89-90, you are O.K.. If there is 88,89 you should consider sending in dues. If the number is 88 or less -- it's time. Only five dollars ($5) will renew your Kenneth Burke Society membership for two years. The form is on the back page. Remove it and send it to Don Burks. Be sure to correct your address.

Southern Burke

Two programs featuring papers concerning Kenneth Burke are scheduled for the Southern States Communication Association Convention, April 6-8, 1989, the Brown Hotel, Louisville, Kentucky:

"Kenneth Burke As 'Heuristicus': Our Guide to Cultural Understanding," Thursday, April 6, 1-2:30 p.m., J. Graham Brown Room.

"Burke's Identification as an Act of Intellectual Imperialism," Friday, April 7, 1-2:00 p.m., J. Graham Brown Room.

If you are not a member of SSCA, but need registration information write: Howard Dorgan, Dept. of Communication Arts, Appalachian State University, Boone, NC 28608.

If you want to get copies of papers write: John Patton, Dept. of Communication, Newcomb Hall, Tulane University, New Orleans, LA 70118.

The Next Newsletter

The next issue will be edited by Dale Bertlesen (address on page 1). All of you have been very supportive. Thank-you for all your help the last three years. I know you will energetically support Dale. -- Mary Evelyn Collins

SPECIAL BURKE ISSUE

William and Yolanda Butts, editors of Horns of Plenty: Malcolm Cowley and his generation, have announced a special issue on Kenneth Burke. If you have a manuscript available, contact the Butts immediately. If you wish copies of the special issue, use the form below.

To subscribe to Horns of Plenty: Malcolm Cowley and his generation (ISSN 0896-9965), send this form with your check or money order to: HORNS OF PLENTY, 2041 West Farragut Avenue, Chicago, IL. 60625.

Please check the appropriate:

Individual ($15.00/year)

Institution ($20.00/year) -- For a sample issue, please check here: . Horns of Plenty may also be order through Boley International Subscription Agency, Inc. and The Faxon Company, Inc.

Horns of Plenty gratefully accepts your contribution of $_____. We are a nonprofit organization independent of university affiliation and funding agency support. Your generosity will ensure our success.

Name/Institution _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

ANNOUNCING

A SPECIAL ISSUE OF

Horns of Plenty: Malcolm Cowley & his generation

focusing on

KENNETH

BURKE

Writer, Critic, Philosopher

CALL FOR PAPERS

Horns of Plenty completes its first year of publication having concentrated on the Malcolm Cowley of its subtitle rather than his generation. The subject of our first special issue will be Kenneth Burke, appropriately enough—Malcolm Cowley's oldest friend and distinguished peer. This special issue (Volume 2, Number 1) is scheduled for Spring 1989 publication.

The Editors therefore solicit submission of essays, scholarly articles, interviews, memoirs, unpublished letters, book reviews, creative tributes, photographs, notices and other related material.

Deadline for submissions: February 1, 1989

TO SUBSCRIBE

Horns of Plenty: Malcolm Cowley and his generation (ISSN 0896-9965) is published four times a year. It is a nonprofit organization independent of university affiliation and funding agency support. Subscription rates are $15.00 for individuals and $20.00 for institutions. The single issue price for the special Kenneth Burke issue is $4.00. Checks or money orders should be made payable to Horns of Plenty and mailed to:

Horns of Plenty
2041 West Farragut Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60625

Membership Form

Name _____

Send this form with $5.00 (check is best) to:
Professor Don Burks
Dept. of Communication
Purdue University
West Lafayette, IN 47907

Kenneth Burke Society
NEWSLETTER
M. E. Collins
Drawer S
Hardin-Simmons University
Abilene, Texas 79698

